BECOMING A UNIVERSITY

Liverpool Hope
University

EST. 1844

The Privy Council awarded university status on 22nd July 2005, leading to the formation of Liverpool Hope University. The following year, Baroness Cox of Queensbury was installed as Foundation Chancellor at a special Service of Thanksgiving held at the Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King.

In September 2009, research degree awarding powers and full independence were awarded to Liverpool Hope and Lord Guthrie of Craigiebank became University Chancellor in 2013.
